

NSW Department of Education Hannans Road Public School Behaviour Support and Management Plan

Overview

Hannans Road Public School is committed to explicitly teaching and modelling positive behaviour and to supporting all students to be engaged with their learning.

Our goal is to inspire every child to participate positively in the school community and beyond. We focus on promoting excellence, opportunity and success for every student, every day. We value and strive to develop safe, respectful learners in a caring learning community.

Principles of positive behaviour support, trauma-informed practice, inclusive practice, and social emotional learning underpin our daily practice. High expectations for student behaviour are established and maintained through effective role modelling, explicit teaching, and planned responses.

All members of the school community are active participants in building a welcoming school culture that values diversity and fosters positive relationships. A key component of a supportive school culture is building respectful relationships and an ethos that bullying is not accepted, in both online and offline environments. School staff actively respond to student bullying behaviour.

Partnership with parents and carers

Hannans Road Public School will partner with parents/carers in establishing expectations for engagement in developing and implementing student behaviour management and antibullying strategies, by:

- inviting parent/carer and student feedback through formal and informal means, such as departmental endorsed survey instruments, school surveys, focus groups, consulting with parent groups and local AECG
- using concerns raised through complaints procedures to review school systems, data and practices.

Hannans Road Public School will communicate our expectations through our key messages. These key messages describe our school expectations.

Our school values are at the core of what we, as a community believe in, and strive for, in our learning and sense of belonging at Hannans Road Public School.

Anything is Possible - I don't give up; I keep trying my best.

The relentless pursuit of growth - I keep working to improve my learning.

Connect and collaborate - We work together to share ideas and get the best results.

Take care, take risks - Even if I'm not sure, I have a go. I learn from and am better because I make mistakes.

Our expectations and values are communicated to parents and caregivers through the school newsletter and school website. Our school proactively builds collaborative relationships with families and communities to create a shared understanding of how to support student learning, safety and wellbeing.

Hannans Road Public School Behaviour Support and Management Plan

Planned responses to positive appropriate behaviour, inappropriate behaviour and behaviours of concern, including bullying and cyberbullying

Our school rejects all forms of bullying behaviours, including online (or cyber) bullying by maintaining our commitment to providing a safe, inclusive, and respectful learning community that promotes student wellbeing. Executive staff are committed to establishing evidence-based approaches and strategies that promote a positive climate where bullying is less likely to occur

Students or parents can report bullying to any staff member. NSW public school principals have the authority to take disciplinary action to address student behaviours that occur outside of school hours or school grounds, including cyberbullying. Students who have been bullied will be offered appropriate support, for example through the school counselling service.

Responses to all behaviours of concern apply to student behaviour that occurs:

- at school
- on the way to and from school
- on school-endorsed activities that are off-site
- outside school hours and off school premises where there is a clear and close connection between the school and students' conduct
- when using social media, mobile devices and/or other technology involving another student or staff member.

Preventing and responding to behaviours of concern

Planned responses to behaviour that does not meet school expectations are either teacher or executive managed. Staff use their professional judgement in deciding whether a behaviour is teacher managed or executive managed. They should consider whether the behaviour poses a risk to the safety or wellbeing of the student or others.

Below are some behaviours that students may display and possible responses. This is not an exhaustive list of potential behaviours and listed responses may be modified to meet the needs of individual students.

Defining Bullying

Bullying is defined in the National Safe Schools Framework (NSSF) as an ongoing misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or psychological harm. It can involve an individual or a group misusing their power over one or more persons. Bullying can happen in person or online, and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden (covert)

Bullying has three key features. It:

- involves a misuse of power in a relationship
- · is ongoing and repeated, and
- involves behaviours that can cause harm.

Bullying can also occur online. This is known as cyberbullying, which is using technology such as the internet or mobile devices to bully someone. It can include sending abusive texts and emails, posting hurtful messages, and putting inappropriate comments on pictures of others.

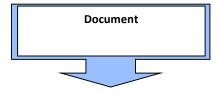

Bullying of any kind is not acceptable in NSW schools, whatever the reason. Schools are committed to working with parents, staff, and students to prevent bullying and respond quickly and effectively if it does occur.
